ORDER

MARY KAY VYSKOCIL, District Judge:

As the parties are aware, the Court received a bail violation memorandum dated March 11, 2022 from the defendant's Pretrial Services Officer. On March 17, 2022, the Court held a bail violation hearing. On the record at the hearing, defense counsel acknowledged that the defendant had violated his bail conditions by testing positive for cocaine [ECF No. 102 ("Tr.") at 5-6]. The Court gave the defendant a "final warning" that if he had "one more positive test," he was "going to be remanded." Tr. at 11:10-13.

The Court later received another bail violation memorandum and directed the parties to appear for a hearing on May 6, 2022. The Court also directed the parties to submit a joint status letter in advance of the hearing. Based on the parties' recent status letter [ECF No. 108], there appears to be no dispute that the defendant has continued to violate his bail conditions by testing positive for cocaine. Accordingly, a further bail violation hearing is not necessary. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the hearing that was scheduled to take place on May 6, 2022 is adjourned sine die. The U.S. Attorney's office shall prepare a bench warrant for my signature.

SO ORDERED.
